

LS201

A proprietary combination of Bacillus bacteria for designed to help maximize gut function in livestock.

- Improves feed efficiency and performance
- Produce enzymes targeted to what the animal is consuming
- Decrease health challenges by lowering the load of pathogenic bacteria
- Maintains normal gut function
- The resilience and versatility of Bacillus allow this new technology to be used across most feed types.